Pursuant to Rule 425 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and deemed filed pursuant to Rule 14a-12 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended

Subject Company: Redfin Corporation
Commission File No.: 001-38160

The following set of Frequently Asked Questions were distributed by Redfin Corporation to certain stakeholders on April 14, 2025.

- I am here on a work visa. What does the acquisition news mean for me?

Redfin will continue to operate as its own entity with no material changes to the company's federal employment identification number (FEIN). This means that any employees on a company-sponsored visa who remain with Redfin will not need additional immigration filings as a result of the acquisition. However, decisions about people impacts have not been made. If an employee is not impacted, their visa status remains unchanged, and they will continue employment with Redfin as usual.

- If my role is eliminated, will I be eligible for severance?

If your job is eliminated within 12 months after the merger closes without "cause," you'll be eligible for severance pay. If you are terminated for cause (meaning things like misconduct, fraud, failing to comply with company policies or disclosing confidential information), or if you are terminated for performance-related reasons, you will not be entitled to severance pay.

All severance payments are conditioned on accepting the terms of a Separation Agreement and General Release.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains statements herein regarding the proposed transaction between Rocket Companies, Inc. (“Rocket”) and Redfin Corporation (“Redfin”); future financial and operating results; benefits and synergies of the transaction; future opportunities for the combined company; the conversion of equity interests contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, (the “Merger Agreement”) entered into by Rocket and Redfin on March 9, 2025; the issuance of common stock of Rocket contemplated by the Merger Agreement; the expected timing of the closing of the proposed transaction; the ability of the parties to complete the proposed transaction considering the various closing conditions and any other statements about future expectations that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. All statements in this communication, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements that may be identified by the use of words “anticipate,” “believe,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “plan,” “potential,” “predict,” “project,” “should,” “target,” “will,” “would” and, in each case, their negative or other various or comparable terminology. Such forward-looking statements are based upon current beliefs, expectations and discussions related to the proposed transaction and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results expressed in such statements.

Risks and uncertainties include, among other things, (i) the risk that the proposed transaction may not be completed in a timely basis or at all, which may adversely affect Rocket’s and Redfin’s businesses and the price of their respective securities; (ii) the potential failure to receive, on a timely basis or otherwise, the required approvals of the proposed transaction, including stockholder approval by Redfin’s stockholders, and the potential failure to satisfy the other conditions to the consummation of the proposed transaction; (iii) the effect of the announcement, pendency or completion of the proposed transaction on each of Rocket’s or Redfin’s ability to attract, motivate, retain and hire key personnel and maintain relationships with lead agents, partner agents and others with whom Rocket or Redfin does business, or on Rocket’s or Redfin’s operating results and business generally; (iv) that the proposed transaction may divert management’s attention from each of Rocket’s and Redfin’s ongoing business operations; (v) the risk of any legal proceedings related to the proposed transaction or otherwise, including the risk of stockholder litigation in connection with the proposed transaction, or the impact of the proposed transaction thereupon, including resulting expense or delay; (vi) that Rocket or Redfin may be adversely affected by other economic, business and/or competitive factors; (vii) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement, including in circumstances which would require payment of a termination fee; (viii) the risk that restrictions during the pendency of the proposed transaction may impact Rocket’s or Redfin’s ability to pursue certain business opportunities or strategic transactions; (ix) the risk that the anticipated benefits and synergies of the proposed transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; (x) the impact of legislative, regulatory, economic, competitive and technological changes; (xi) risks relating to the value of Rocket securities to be issued in the proposed transaction; (xii) the risk that integration of the Rocket and Redfin businesses post-closing may not occur as anticipated or the combined company may not be able to achieve the growth prospects expected from the transaction; and (xiii) the effect of the announcement, pendency or completion of the proposed transaction on the market price of the common stock of each of Rocket and Redfin.

These risks, as well as other risks related to the proposed transaction, are described in a registration statement on Form S-4 (the “Registration Statement”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on April 7, 2025 and a prospectus of Rocket and a proxy of Redfin included therein (the “Proxy Statement/Prospectus”) in connection with the proposed transaction. While the list of factors presented here and the list of factors presented in the Registration Statement are considered representative, no such list should be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Additional factors that may affect future results are contained in each company’s filings with the SEC, including each company’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, as it may be updated from time to time by quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K, all of which are available at the SEC's website <http://www.sec.gov>. The information set forth herein speaks only as of the date hereof, and any intention or obligation to update any forward looking statements as a result of developments occurring after the date hereof is hereby disclaimed.
